Headline:
Sunny spells and showers. Cloudy later in west.

Today:
Bright for most with sunny spells, the best of these towards Inverness and the Great Glen. There will be some showers around, these mainly across the north through the morning. Cloud increases across western areas in the late afternoon. Breezy. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Tonight:
Rather cloudy for most with outbreak of mainly light rain and drizzle. However it looks drier towards the Black Isle and northern Great Glen with late sunny then clear spells. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Sunday:
Some warm sunny spells towards the Moray Firth coast but generally a mostly cloudy day with outbreaks of rain and drizzle, these becoming more persistent and occasionally heavy later. Breezy. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Rain clears overnight then sunny spells and showers Monday. Cloud and occasionally heavy rain soon spread east Tuesday, the rain clearing early Wednesday to leave sunny spells and showers.
